OYHAM/08/92/17

“That this Honourable House critically examine Yoruba culture as the beliefs, customs, language, cuisine, social habits, music and arts which is expected to be passed down from generation to generation and the influence of Western civilization and globalization that is fast eroding its values with a view to urging the Executive to take proactive actions at revamping and preserving the rich Yoruba culture – Hon. M.O. Olagunju (Oyo East/West).
